

Learning in good company

ebaix and MomoLogue accompany systematic learning initiatives. Creating a discreet learning environment helps improving performance in the humanitarian sector:

- ➔ new insights and perspectives
- ➔ information beyond the usual monitoring and reporting data
- ➔ tailor-made to the specific learning needs
- ➔ systematic approach to listening and to learning increases credibility

ebaix and MomoLogue accompany Caritas Switzerland, Swiss Red Cross, Medair, Solidar and HEKS

Two-year learning process

Field assessments in 5 countries

Series of learning workshops

KEY FEATURES

Long-term perspective: Learning from programmes closed for 4, 10 or even 15 years

Using film: Transfer of knowledge from programme locations to decision-makers

Good enough: Balance between flexibility and rigour

ebaix

Peter Zihlmann

zihlmann@ebaix.ch

www.ebaix.ch

MomoLogue

Ralf Otto

ralf.otto@momologue.be

www.momologue.be